

Rebecca “Becky” Davis
Financial Examiner
Risk Finance Bureau

District of Columbia Department of Insurance, Securities and Banking

Since 2014, Becky has been a Financial Examiner & Analyst in the Risk Finance Bureau at the District of Columbia Department of Insurance, Securities and Banking (DISB) and in January 2022 Becky took on the role of examination supervisor. Becky’s duties include performing and reviewing the financial analysis of DC captives and risk retention groups, supervising examination of DC captives and risk retention groups, and reviewing licensing applications and business plan changes, as needed. Becky graduated from Freed-Hardeman University in Henderson, Tennessee with her MBA and BBA in Accounting and a minor in Mathematics. She holds the Certified Fraud Examiner and Professional in Insurance Regulation designations.