

Alicia Miller
Insurance Tax Services Senior Manager
Crowe LLP

A senior manager in Crowe's insurance tax practice. Alicia has spent the majority of her career serving property and casualty, accident and health, life insurance companies, and other types of insurance entities. She has expertise in the taxation of various types of insurance companies and provides tax compliance and consulting services to various insurance clients. With a deep understanding of all tax aspects of insurance companies, her specific areas of concentration include federal and state income/franchise and premium tax compliance, and GAAP ASC 740 and SSAP 101 financial statement reporting.