

Michael Pfaender
Insurance Tax Services Senior Associate
Crowe LLP

Michael is a senior staff in Crowe's Insurance Tax Practice specializing in the taxation of various types of insurance companies. Michael has spent most of his career serving property and casualty, accident and health, and other types of insurance entities. With a focus in understanding all tax aspects of insurance companies, his specific areas of concentration include federal and state income tax.